Our story began long before anyone on our leadership team worked together. For some of us, it began with our individual, unigure camp experiences in childhood. We remembered feeling God's presence, making new friends, and feeling at peace in our home away from home. For others, it began with the opportunity to see our childresn thrive in that environment and benefit spiritually from those experiences. When our team first came together we discussed those experiences and arrived at one simple conclusion - EVERY kid should have a chance to experience a Christian summer camp regardless of their life circumstances or socioeconomic background. It was out of this conviction that Camp Lighthouse was birthed. In 2011, God blessed us with 143 acres of beautiful camp property in North Georgia.
